Description

Hans Dahl (1849-1937) Norwegian

Hans Dahl was a Norwegian painter born at Hardanger in 1849. After serving in the Swedish army, he decided to pursue a career in art studying at Karlsruhe and at Düsseldorf under the guidance of Hans Fredrik Gude (1825-1903) a noted Mid-Nineteenth Century Norwegian artist, and Wilhelm Riefstahl (1827-1888) a German contemporary of Gude. Dahl started exhibiting his work in Berlin in 1876 and developed a reputation as a notable painter of Landscape and Genre Scenes.

In this signed oil on canvas, Hans Dahl shows why he was such a popular artist. This stunning composition has great depth and the artist's vivid palette brings life to the tranquil and hazy valley.
