Description

Carl Brandt (Swedish School 1871-1930)

Carl Brandt was born Karl August Svensson and started his career as a decorative painter setting up his own workshop at the age of eighteen. In due course he started painting watercolours, as well as working in oil and pastel. He is known for his sweeping romantic landscapes with harmonious compositions. Brandt had several successful gallery and museum exhibitions, including at the Telfair Museum of Art, Savannah, Georgia. Today his work is now in the permanent collections of the Örebro County Museum as well as other Swedish museums.
