Description

Walter John Beauvais (1942-1998) British Born in England in 1942 Walter "Wally" Beauvais was apprenticed to his father Charles Henri; an established French artist with studios in London and Marseilles. Although always considered an Englishman, it is in the French Impressionist style that his most desirable works are painted, delicate tones suggesting the aura of the subject as much as it's physical being.
c.1985. Oil on board. Artist's monogram on front, signed & titled on reverse.
